

¿NO ESTOY YO AQUÍ,
QUE SOY TU MADRE?

Sociedades Guadalupanas.

Sociedades Guadalupanas (Guadalupe Societies) are religious associations organized by Mexican-American Catholic women to provide leadership in social concerns and perform works of charity. The organization's name derives from Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas. Sociedades Guadalupanas have helped fostering female development and leadership in the Catholic Church.

St. Clare Guadalupanas/Guadalupanos Society.
